conflict with any other product or service you have purchased

3.1.4. In relation to Car rentals, the car rental Travel Supplier's specific terms and conditions for cancellations and amendments will be available during the booking process and, for most bookings, through a link provided in your confirmation email. If you fail to cancel your reservation prior to the pick-up time and do not collect the vehicle on the pick-up date, or if you fail to comply with the pick-up terms (see car supplier terms and conditions), Opodo on behalf of the car supplier reserves the right to make a 'no-show' charge of up to 100% of the total car rental booking value.

3.2. Price and payment

3.2.1. The total price of your booking will be shown once you have selected all the specific products you would like to acquire. Such price will include the price of all products selected and Opodo's service fees. Opodo's service fees are independent of the price of the products and non-refundable in any case, as they are charged for the service provided by Opodo for the search, comparison and assistance in the booking process. Taxes fluctuate in-line with exchange rates.

3.2.2. The amount of the service fees depends on the products acquired. Opodo may also charge additional service fees if you make a booking by phone or request changes or refunds. In the event that you use an unfunded credit card or a credit card which is rejected by the bank due to any other reason that is caused by you, Opodo will charge a service fee of up to sixty euro (€60) and will provide you with instructions to make effective the payment of your booking. The service fee will be added to the final price. Until you make effective the full payment, you will not be able to receive your products. Moreover, we hereby bring your attention to the fact that, due to the nature of travel products, it is possible that price changes occur between your booking and the effective payment and you will have to assume the cost of the selected products at the moment that you are making the effective payment.

- b. If the date of departure is less than 48 hours away, a booking modification is possible solely via the Call Center.
- c. The cost of change of air ticket depends on the fares and possibility to carry out changes specified by the Carrier. The total price of change of air ticket booking includes:
 - a standard charge for a change or an additional service (which comprises a charge for ticket modification pursuant to the regulations and the table of fees of a given airline, as well as a non-refundable service fee for modifying the order or ordering an additional service),
 - the difference in tariff prices (a difference of costs between the initial price of a ticket and its price at the moment of the change),
 - the difference in taxes and airport charges (a potential difference in costs between the initial value of taxes and charges and their value at the moment of the change).
- d. The booking in the Booking System is modified by the Service Provider under conditions specified in the Table of service fees for additional services to be changed in an already purchased ticket:

Table of service fees for additional services to be changed in an already purchased ticket (in USD):

Change	SP per person
Changes to the ticket (including: changing the travel date and route, the passenger's surname)	33
Cancelling or returning the ticket	33
Adding extra or special baggage	13.50
Requesting an assistance service for an unaccompanied minor	13.50
Booking a selected seat on the plane	13.50
Ordering a special meal	13.50
Transporting pets	13.50
Priority boarding	13.50
Additional services offered by the airline	13.50
Online check-in assistance during check-in	13.50

- e. The User may pay for changes to the air ticket booking as specified in § 7 of these Terms. The payment using the payment card is carried out via the Call Center. If payment is made via transfer of funds from a payment account, the User receives an e-mail confirming the change, which specifies details of the booking (booking number, passenger's details, details of the connection and information on additional services and air ticket tariffs), details for making the payment and the amount of change.
 - f. Some promotional tariffs available in the Booking System have very specific conditions of booking and issuing air tickets. It applies particularly to tariffs which ought to be booked and purchased at least three, seven or fourteen days in advance. Failure to meet that condition may result in a change in the price of the air ticket. eSky reserves the right to cancel the User's booking, made exactly three, seven or fourteen days before departure, if the User exceeds the limit of purchase defined by the Carrier in the Carrier's tariff terms and conditions. An airline may request to issue a ticket earlier. In such case, the User will receive the necessary information about the deadline for the payment to the current e-mail address.
15. During the flight ticket booking process, the User may be informed that by selecting a particular flight ticket they will be obliged to monitor possible flight schedule changes directly with the Carrier. This means that eSky will not inform the User about any changes, and thus the User will have to monitor changes independently and react to them accordingly. Should the Carrier fail to provide the User with relevant information regarding their reservation which would make it impossible to provide the service, they should contact eSky immediately, in order to determine the status and the possibility of making necessary changes to the reservation.
16. Providing email addresses during the booking process:
- a. For all communication between the User and the Carrier without the intervention of eSky, the User is required to use the same email address that they used to make the reservation in the Reservation System. Failure to do so means that eSky will be unable to support the User in its service.
